OUTDOOR SCONCES

A well-placed lantern is the finishing touch on a facade, porch, or patio brimming with style.

Consider curb appeal, the magnetism that beckons people into your house before they even get out of the car. No polished lacquered door, trimmed topiary, or patinated clapboard facade is complete without a pair of outdoor sconces flanking the entryway. And a terrace without them feels a bit bare (to say nothing of dark). A strategic light source is a lot more than that—think of it as jewelry your house gets to wear, then sit back and let your guests fall in love.
